FROM YOUR PRESIDENT

One has to appreciate the activities and accomplishments completed during 1984 under direction of past president Tom Reichelderfer. Kudos to Tom and his Board.

As we enter the New Year, the MSNA is steadfast with continuing progress.

Your new Executive Board had its first meeting December 8th. We reviewed and then "wrapped-up" the 1984 Convention. The Treasurer, Bill Swagler, reported a strong financial balance with all expenses paid and club distributions made. The four working Clubs: Alexandria, Baltimore, Co'n Huskers and Maryland TAMS and General Chairman Bob Ruby are to be complimented for a job well done.

A very successful fall seminar, headed up by Will Mumford, concluded the 1984 program.

Looking ahead: The hotel and convention center contract have been signed for the September 6-8, 1985 show. Jesse Martin and Bob Ruby will co-chair what is to be a scaled-down convention following our August 20-25 ANA effort. Member Clubs who would like to co-host MSNA's annual convention are asked to submit their bids before February 15th.

The Board is open for this year's educational forum organization and speakers suggestions.

Our ad hoc Committee to study the setting up of a numismatic Cabinet centered around the John B. Henry Collection of tokens and paper is still at work. There are several legal and associated ramifications needing finalization. Member input is solicited.

Expansion of the Maryland State Association's services to member clubs, dealers, and individuals is the key to growth and future financial strength. Convention facility cost is rapidly becoming a burden for coin show dealers and the hosting clubs. Slackened business activity in the coin field is troubling many dealers and was one cause for the 1984 MSNA show falling 30 tables short of a full bourse. Club effort or influence is slowing; several have closed. We can no longer rest on the laurels of past achievement. The more members MSNA has the more services we will be able to provide; this in turn brings new thoughts, new activity, liveliness, alertness or vigorous action and interaction. An active movement involves learning by direct experience. Each dealer reaches hundreds of collectors; each member and club does the same. Why doesn't each dealer and each club set a 1985 goal to sign up three new members? each member bring in one new member. This will bring benefits we can look back on.

I will ask our Numismatist Editor Bill Ayres to include loose forms in every envelope and deliver a dozen copies to all dealer and club members. Maryland State can be the leader in our area to start new things happening. Our ANA Show in Baltimore, August 20-25 will be dedicated to the collector. You are the one we want there and in MSNA in the future. So with due respect we realize the worth of the past but value the years ahead. It is important that we carry forward an improve upon what has been passed to us. I pledge to do my part. How many of you can I count on to do the same?

Carl

SYNOPSIS of MINUTES
PREPARED BY DAVID
McDONALD, SECRETARY
8 December 1984
2:00 p.m.

The Executive Board meeting of the Maryland State Numismatic Association was called to order by Carl Shrader, President. Present were:

Carl Shrader - President	Bill Lenz - Past President
Dave McDonald- Secretary	Bill Ayres- Harford Coin Huskers
Bill Swagler - Treasurer	Jesse Martin- Alexandria Coin Cl
Tom Reichelderfer - Past President

Minutes of the 2 Sep meeting were amended to recognize Greg Ruby's efforts in setting up the speakers for the education forum at the fall convention.

Jack Pryor was recognized for his generous contribution to the MSNA YN program.

Carl read a letter he received from the Children's Cancer Foundation of Baltimore thanking us for our contribution to the fund for the new outpatient center to be built at the Johns Hopkins Hospital for children with cancer and leukemia.

It was recommended and passed that MSNA join the ANA 1891 club.

It was voted funds from the 1984 Convention and Show be distributed to the Gist Clubs as follows: Alexandria Coin Club - $1100.; Baltimore Coin Club Harford Coin Huskers and MD TAMS - $400. each.

Motion was passed to have the books of MSNA audited.

A deficit of $25.00 in the A N A patronage fund will be covered by MSNA and it was voted we pay $15.00 to be Patons of the 1985 ANA Mid Winter Convention.

Bill Lenz reported that Admiral Dodson's speech at the fall seminar was vido taped and is available to be shown to member clubs of MSNA. It was recommended MSNA promote a club participation award at future seminars and to make them in conjunction with a coin show.

1985 M S N A Convention: will be held on the weekend following Labor Day weekend (5 thru 8 Sep 1985). There will be no auction. Opening time on Sunday was discussed. The annual awards breakfast takes place that morning and the opening of the show has traditionally been later than other Lanham shows. There has been a call from the other groups to make the opening time uniform. Co-chairman for the 1985 Convention and Show will be Jesse Martin and Bob Ruby. Jesse recommended additional funds be allocated for the hospitality room. Pete Burris has volunteered to be exhibits chairman. We have to work for more exhibits. Ideally, we n-ed exhibits that have had little or no local exposure. It was suggested we reward first time exhibitors and "new" exhibits to encourage a fresher selection of displays. Bob Ruby has requested we limit the number of clubs hosting the annual convention. He feels this would aid the coordination of the event.

BALTIMORE COIN CLUB's ANNUAL SHOW

by Marvin (Pete) Burris

It was a warm and sunny day for the Annual Baltimore Coin Club Show on November 25, 1984. Twenty one very busy dealers sold many coins and tokens to customers with an active interest in Franklin Mint material and silver dollars.

The Speaker Chairman, Greg Ruby, introduced four interesting guests - Russ Sears spoke on "Baltimore Charge Tokens" and displayed two exhibit cases of different tokens. Jack Pryor talked about "Collectables of James II." Greg then had a slide show entitled "Introduction to Exonumia" and Carl Leese spoke on "The use of a Metal Detector for Coin and Metal Search."

There were eight exhibitors with 15 cases of exhibits:

Jack Pryor received MSNA's special "Best of Show" award for his exhibit featuring "A Selection of the Coins and Medals of Charles I and Henrietta Maria.

Robert Vaughan received the Master Award for his exhibit "United States Silver Commemoratives."

Bobbie Vaughan received the Superior Award for "The Origin of Numismatics, The Ancients."

The Excellence Award went to Marvin Burris for "George Washington, the Mason."

Appreciation awards went to: Mel Widerman, Arlie Alabaugh, Mark Hiltz and Bill Laprade.

Supplies sold very well and many door prizes were given out. The raffle, tho not too strong, was won by Jack Pryor who quickly donated the proceeds equeally to the Baltimore Coin Club and the MSNA, with a stipulation that Sandra Emme use the later sum for the Young Numismatist Program.

A HISTORY OF MONEY IN MARYLAND

By WILL MUMFORD

Marylanders would take special pride in their role in the use and development of money in the history of our country. The chief integrating force which binds man together and elevates his economic status is his monetary system. Without some form of money no interchange of products is possible. From the earliest civilizations, man has developed some system to exchange his time and talents for the necessities and luxuries of life.

The American colonies, out of necessity, provided some very interesting features in their struggle to provide a monetary system which would adequately meet the needs of the colonists. In reviewing the subject of Maryland's monetary systems in the colonial days, the most striking single feature is the confusion which must have existed in trying to establish and keep straight the standards of value for the various forms of currency. With at least five different monetary systems, each circulating with its own changing standard it is little wonder that the colonists were somewhat perplexed when it came to money matters. The barter system was the first, and most natural, monetary system used in colonial Maryland. There are many fascinating stories associated with the use of barter and barter still exists to some extent in Maryland and the rest of the world.

In Colonial times civilized countries, as they do today, used coins for their monetary system. Unlike today, the coins were minted of gold, silver and copper. But England minted no coins for use in the colonies and the few coins that found their way to the new world were foreign....Spanish, Portuguese, French, Dutch and a smattering of coins from other countries. Throw in a few British coins and you can see what problems the colonists had in keeping track of the relative values of all these currencies. Keep in mind also that each colony established its own exchange rates for all these coins. It was an impossible task to even keep up with your own colonies rates of exchange. The situation gets even worse when you consider that most colonists couldn't read and there were no radios, no T. V., and no banks! The few coins that were in circulation were used by individuals to pay personal expenses and other small debts.

Marylanders also used a system called, "Bills of Ex-

OUR MEMBER CLUBS REPORT

ALEXANDRIA COIN CLUB was the host club for the Metropolitan Washington Numismatic Association for the distribution of the profits from the July 1984 convention at New Carrollton, at their November meeting. At this time checks for $2800.00 each were distributed to five charities in the Washington, metropolitan area. In addition, each of the four member clubs in MWNA received checks for $500. to cover their support of the show and expenses associated with that support.

PRINCE GEORGE'S COUNTY COIN CLUB has a three legged prize which they call their 3 legged buffalo. Their "buffalo" is currently a 1984 1/10 oz gold Chinese Panda coin. So far no one has been able to gain a second leg on it: as of December six members had one. From the front of their newsletter we see they will hold their election of officers at their January meeting. We await the results.

MONTGOMERY COUNTY COIN CLUB's program for October, presented by Walt Miller consisted of a quiz. Questions compiled from data in the Redbook were presented and those with the correct answers took home silver certificates. Also at their October meeting was the holding of their annual Donated Auction. The proceeds of this auction are divided between the Wheaton and Silver Spring Girls and Boys Clubs. At the December meeting Walt awarded a five dollar silver certificate to Steve Richter for guessing the closest amount from the Donated Auction - $891.75.

WMPG TRI-CLUB reports their Sixth annual coin convention will be held April 19 thru 21 1985, at the Sheraton Inn, New Carrollton. Dave McGuinness is the General Chairman and an auction by Katens.

KENT COIN CLUB reports that the following exhibitors were rewarded for their efforts at the K C C's 13th Annual Coin Show on Sep 30th.

Russell Frank - Senior Best of Show - World's Columbian Exposition Half Dollar.

Terry Bryan - First Place-A Delaware Currency Display

John Greenslet-Second Place -a collection of the Official British Coronation and Jubilee Medals.

Phil Greenslet-Third Place-Stations of the Cross Medals

David Patterson-Junior Best of Show-Eisenhower Type Set

At KCC's November meeting, 26 members & guests heard Steve Taylor comment on the future of numismatics, recent show attendance trends, market cycles, investors versus collectors and current projects of the A.N.A.

THE POOR MAN'S COLLECTION

by Pete Burris

Robert Vaughan Started his poor man's collection in 1956 and worked on it until 1963. He joined the Baltimore Club, as an active member in 1962. He became semi-active until 1982. After returning from California with his daughter Bobbie he proceeded to work again and now eats, sleeps and dreams coins.

With a very satisfied smile Robert displays the M.S.N.A. sponsored "Best of Show Award" which he won at the Associated Coin Clubs show. He is accompanied by his daughter Roberta. This winning exhibit was entitled "Scarce and Key U.S. Coins."

He enjoys the Baltimore Coin Club meetings and at the club "Show and Tell" displays many interesting and rare items. Seldom does he miss the opportunity to exhibit. This effort is well deserving "A GREAT THANKS."

Ms Shirley Howard, President of The Children's Cancer Foundation, Inc., presents Bob Ruby a Certificate of Appreciation. Bob, in his capacity as Show Chairman 1984 presented the Foundation with the proceeds of our Thursday Night special dealer's session. Each dealer, who did not have a table at the show, was able to gain admittance to the floor for the evening once they presented us with a check made payable to the Children's Cancer Foundation.

JOE CLARKE RETIRES TRI- CLUB By Pete Burris

Joining a coin club, being a member, was not enough for Joe Clarke he had to be in the thick of everything. Be it Chairing, Exhibiting, or just carrying exhibit cases, why back in 82 Joe and Eldridge Jones drove all the way to Baltimore to meet me to pick up Baltimore Coin Club exhibit cases just to be sure they had enough for the show. This is the Joseph A. Clarke I know.

Joe Clarke as General Chairman Announced at the TRI- CLUB 5th. annual Convention Breakfast of retiring. "I will continue to be a worker, he said, but I won't be presiding any more." Walter Miller honored him with a plaque, "In Appreciation of Services Rendered."

Perhaps you haven't had time to read the material mailed from MSNA through Board Minutes, or the Numismatist, or the letters from myself, or perhaps you have misplaced them. Or possibly you must rely on your club president, or secretary, or whomever receives the club mail, to make you aware. In any event, there are always a few who don't get the word.

Let's be different! Let us make the effort to be in the know. Use the membership forms and sign up a few new members; take Secretary Dave McDonald's Club Information Sheet, fill it out, and return it; become the Club Representative and attend MSNA meetings; volunteer to help out during the next few months and insure the 1985 MSNA Coin Show and Convention is one of the best ever, even if it is scaled down from normal. Work with the Numismatic Cabinet Committee; help keep your club informed and involved.

Maybe you heard the story of young Jack Belten, who at the age of 15..."swam for four hours in the dark through frigid waters of Lake Michigan in an effort that saved the lives of his father and sister. The Belten's sailing yacht capsized two miles from Chicago in high winds and pelting rains." Police called the boy's swim a miracle. Hearing this, Jack said, "I'm not a hero. I just did what had to be done."

Regardless of how we interpret that story, the bottom line comes through clear and strong--when we use our resources, limited though they might be, they make a difference. Limited though we feel our resources might be, they have a way of multiplying when we commit them to a cause, we end up surprised that we had more than we ever dreamed.

Ask the three club sponsors for this year's show. They are: Perry Hall Coin Club, Colonial Coin Club, and Alexandria Coin Club. Give them a helping hand and compliments.

Next year the club choices will be made under a new set of guidelines. The original agreement with Alexandria and the Sheraton New Carrollton expires with the conclusion of the 1985 show. A Committee is studying this to offer the Board suggestions as to how the breakdown of jobs, done by each club, for the show will be rewarded. One strong responsibility is surfacing. Each club must have active representatives involved in the Board meetings. If no reps and no attendance, no show sponsorship. Without such a rule you can see how a few clubs will run the shows and reap the profits. Let's all become involved, "...do what has to be done."

Thanks to Sylvan Richter. He voluntarily audited the MSNA books--the first time anyone can recall that this has been done. Everything was in good order.

Sylvan, we appreciate it. A job well done.

It was with great sadness and a heavy heart when we heard about the untimely death of Max Ratner of the Alexandria Coin Club. He gave much to so many; a tireless worker in most D. C. area shows. Max was Registration Chairman for MSNA's show last year. He also was carrying the same responsibility for the ANA convention in Baltimore. We will miss Max!

Present:	Carl Shrader	President	Jesse Martin	Alexandria CC
	Bob Ruby	V.P.	Bill Ayres	MD TAMS
	Bill Swagler	Treasurer	Bryce Doxzon	Catonsville
	Dave McDonald	Secretary	Bill Lenz	Baltimore CC
	Pete Burris	Baltimore CC	Stan Brown	MD TAMS

The minutes of the 12/8/84 meeting were read and approved.

Five MSNA member clubs responded to the board's letter seeking sponsors for the 1985 show. They were Perry Hall CC, Colonial CC, Hartford CC, MD TAMS, and Alexandria CC.

Correspondence: we received recognition of our membership in the 1891 Club of the ANA. ANA also announced the availability of Coin Week literature. Coin Week is April 21 - 27.

The treasurer's report was read by Bill Swagler and accepted. The books will be audited on 2/18/85. Bill is shifting excess funds from the Convention Account to our Savings Account to improve the return.

The financial commitments for 1985 were outlined by Carl Shrader. We have allocated $5,000 to MD TAMS as a loan for the publication of the book on Maryland tokens. There is a commitment to purchase $1,500 worth of custom designed crab pins for the Baltimore ANA convention.

Bill Lenz made a motion to place the funds for the $5,000 MD TAMS loan in a 3 or 6 month CD to collect additional interest until the money is requested. The length of the CD depends on the expectations of MD TAMS. This was seconded by Jesse Martin and unanimously approved.

Carl Shrader reviewed the MSNA commitment to the Sheraton for the 1985 Show (September 5 - 8). The various organizations that hold numismatic events at the Sheraton will be negotiating in unison for the contracts in 1986 and 1987. This will produce more consistency of service from the Sheraton. It will also force the show organizers to become more formalized as well. We have reserved the dates for the 1986 and 1987 MSNA Shows at the Sheraton.

Jesse Martin made a motion to sign the contract for the 1985 MSNA Show at the Sheraton and make the required $500 deposit to insure the dates. This was seconded by Bill Lenz and passed unanimously.

The distribution of profits from the 1985 MSNA Show has been reviewed. Our agreement with the Alexandria Coin Club ran from 1983 to 1985. That agreement states that the MSNA will receive 50% of the profits; Alexandria CC 25%; other sponsoring coin clubs will split the remaining 25%. This split was created because Alexandria CC has contributed a large part of the manpower needed for the show. In 1986 and later, the split may be changed to reflect a different balance in the work force.

Carl Shrader made the following recommendations: 1. that the general show chairmanship and committee leaders be rotated so more members gain exposure to these responsibilities. 2. our clubs must have active club representatives involved with the board meetings. The club representative must attend at least one half of the board meetings to make the club eligible to sponsor the annual show. 3. the minutes from the board meetings and all announcements should go to the club representatives of each member club. 4. the MSNA board should meet independent of outside influences like coin club meetings or coin shows. 5. sponsor clubs for the MSNA Show should be limited to three per year to aid the show chairman. 6. MSNA should receive 55% of the profits from the show and the remaining 45% to be split between the three sponsoring clubs. (Discussion on the point brought the recommendation to give a fixed percentage of the profits for each specific job performed by members of the club.) 7. Alexandria Coin Club should have a continuing charter as a sponsor club through the 1987 show.

At Jesse Martin's suggestion, a committee was formed to establish the breakdown of return for jobs done at the MSNA Shows. The members of the committee are: Carl Shrader, Bob Ruby, Jesse Martin, Bill Lenz and Bill Ayres.

Most member clubs are not represented on the MSNA board. To better serve the member clubs we have to have their involvement. With this report of the minutes will go a blank "Club Information Sheet" so we can update our records. We hope to have the club representatives participate in their state organization in the future.

Sponsors for the 1985 MSNA Show will be: Perry Hall Coin Club, Colonial Coin Club, and Alexandria Coin Club. Congratulations! The representatives for the Harford Coin Huskers and MD TAMS made room for Perry Hall and Colonial since they have not recently been involved with the annual show.

Bill Ayres addressed the fact that the application for MSNA is included in each issue of The Maryland Numismatist. It will be printed so the removal of the application will not damage the journal. Applications should be sent with bourse applications as Earl Blaisdell mails them out.

The Souvenir Card for the 1985 show will come from one of the colonial notes contributed to the MSNA by John B. Henry. He will be recognized for his contribution on the card.

Carl Shrader addressed the need to tighten up on the bourse area for the future MSNA shows. This will be discussed with Earl Blaisdell. Control over the percentage of area that can be used to display jewelry or food items would be helpful. Our goal is to improve the quality of the show for numismatists.

The John B. Henry Collection: the inventory is continuing. The MSNA board has now formally accepted the collection. With it we have accepted any potential tax liability associated with the contribution. Acceptance of the collection has taken place over a two year period which will eliminate any risk of a tax liability. Duplicate material is to be returned to John B. Henry.

Membership: in 1985 we have 127 paid members. There are 30 members from 1984 that have failed to pay dues thus far this year. 15 clubs have paid and 11 have not.

Bill Ayres made a motion to allow APL Coin Club to pay no dues in 1985. The address given to MSNA for their mail was not complete enough and no mail was received through most of 1984. Jesse Martin seconded the motion and it passed unanimously.

Greg Ruby was accepted as the 17th Life Member of the MSNA. Congratulations to Greg! Applications are being accepted.

We need more members in the MSNA. The board members are taking

+++Anticipated Dates

GERALD L. KREINER, CHARTER Member Number 2 of MSNA died on 24 March. Jerry, who was very active in the association during our formative days, was our first Vice-President serving thru 1974. He served on the Board from 1974 thru 1977 as an Area Representative from the Maryland Numismatic Society. Jerry served as Secretary of MSNA from 1977 thru 1979. He served on many committees & chaired several of our Educational Seminars. He was the first editor of our Publication which was then entitled "Numisnotes".

MAX RATNER, a member of the Alexandria Coin Club died on 24 March. Max served on the MSNA Convention Committees as a member of the Alexandria Club. He would have been Registration Chairman of our ANA Committee.

WALTER H. WHEELER, JR., Charter Member Number 151, died on March 27th. Walt served as Secretary of MSNA for 1976. He was a long time member of Harford Coin Huskers and was Treasurer of that club from 1962 thru 1965. Over the span of years he captured numerous awards for exhibits he presented at local and state shows.

HERBERT W. QUARTLEY, JR., a long time member of Baltimore Coin Club and Charter Member Number 36 of MSNA passed away on 17 February. Older Members of the club will remember the many fine cook outs they enjoyed at his shore property.

We also understand that FRANK HRUBY, MSNA Charter Member No 96 and also a member of the Baltimore Coin Club passed away 1 February.

MICHAEL DORCZAK, a member of Baltimore Coin Club died on 13 December 1984.

OUR MEMBER CLUBS REPORT:

BALTIMORE COIN CLUB is now celebrating 50 years of existence. To quote: "A meeting for the purpose of forming a coin club will be held Tuesday evening, March 19, 1935, at 8:00 PM., at the Lord Baltimore Hotel and you are invited to attend. See Lobby Bulletin for room number."

On March 21st the Clubs 50th Anniversary Banquet was held at Overlea Hall with Cory Lee Gilliland, Associate Curator of Numismatics at the Smithsonian Institute as guest speaker on the topic of Yap Money. On April 18th the anniversary meeting was held and Jacques Kelly, columnist for the News American, provided a slide show taken from the period in which the club was founded; plus some others, of Baltimore City. John Cook, one of BCC's few surviving members of that 1st meeting attended and gave the club some highlights of the early days. John was the President of the Club in 1940.

At their 21 February meeting the members present inducted Bill Lenz and Bob Bedford as Life Members Nos. 17 & 18.

BCC has a new library cabinet through the courtesey of Reds Dorsch assisted by Pete Burris. When you borrow a book at this club you go in style.

B C C also reports that 3 of their members have been hospitalized over the last few days: Plum Wiley (who is also MSNA Number 77), William Perlitz and Gordon Roberts.

Baltimore Coin Club's officers for 1985:

Paul Finck - President
Jack Pryor - Vice President
Greg Ruby - Treasurer
Jackie Vaughan-Secretary

BELMAR COIN CLUB has changed their locations and their meeting night. This club which had a most original meeting day (Sunday) has now joined the rest of the clubs by holding their meetings on the 2nd Sednesday of the month. They have also changed the location of their meeting sites and meet at the Harford National Bank on Route 24 at the southerly end of Bel Air.

PRINCE GEORGE'S COUNTY COIN CLUB reports their new officers for 1985:

President: Dr. James I. Lore
1st V. P.: David Feinberg
2nd V. P.: Michael Suit
Treasurer: Joseph A. Clarke
Secretary: Robert H. Colcock
Directors: Paul Duffey, Sandra Emme, Jean F. Kline and Brian DeMay.

PGCCC had to cancel their Feb meeting due to weather. They also report they are looking for a new place to hold their meetings. The present location does not adequately meet their requirements.

MONTGOMERY COUNTY COIN CLUB reports the following positions for 1985:

President: Ed Kingsley

Montgomery County Coin Club

Secretary: Mae Clarke
Editor: Herb Hall
Circulation Manager: John
Herman

Julian Leidman addressed the club at their January meeting and gave some predictions of things to come in the numismatic world in 1985. Their February program consisted of an article on Love Tokens by Louise Campbell, taken from an earlier MANA Journal, read by Mae Clarke while Joe Clarke operated the slide projector using Walt Mason's slides on Love Tokens.

At their April meeting MCCC had each of eight members give an experience they had in collecting. The audience then voted on the stories and the first four received prizes. The winners were:

- 1st: John Huffman - an unknown Coin
- 2nd: Kermit Smyth on a circulated buffalo nickel and half dollar.
- 3rd: Simcha Kuritzky on primitive and unusual money.
- 4th: Dave McQuinness - Coins with eagles on them.

PERRY HALL COIN CLUB presents their officers for 1985:

President: Bob Schultz
Vice President: Don Levin
Secretary: Grace Honeywell
Treasurer: Don Smith.

ALEXANDRIA COIN CLUB meets the 4th Wednesday of each month at the Lee Center, 1108 Jefferson Street, Alexandria, Va. From Jesse Martin we have the following:

The Alexandria Coin Cl has been conducting an educational program for the past 6 months which has been an outstanding success. Since A Guide Book of United States Coins (Red book) has so much information of value to a coin collector & since few coin collectors really read the Redbook, each monthly ACC meeting features a quiz based mainly on Redbook facts. The top ten scores in the quiz are awarded nice coin prizes. The quizzes are made more difficult each month & range over all areas of our hobby. It has become obvious club members are now studying the Redbook before each club meeting. It has proven once again that people will study and learn if they are given an incentive.

From Ted Clark, President of SALISBURY COIN CLUB we hear they were well pleased with their show, which was held in February. We have had a bit of trouble keeping in touch with them as everything sent to their box after the first of the year was returned, however Ted assures me this will be taken care of. (Stanley Dennis now informs me they have a new Box Number - 3414 - so I guess that takes care of that.)

From our fond friend in the WESTERN MARYLAND COIN CLUB, Betty Waingold, we received word that their new president is Lawrence Groer from Grantsville. Betty says to be sure and tell everyone that their show dates for this year will be June 1 and 2, at LaVale in the Fire Hall; 10:00 to 5:00 each day. Seems Catoctin also scheduled a show for May 18 & 19 and being the good guys they are W M C C changed their dates.

HENRY WESTPHAL, Past President of M S N A, has had to give up coin collecting. His eyes have gotten so bad he just can't see them anymore but Henry won't give up - he now collect overnight deposit bags from the various banks. If you are able to come up with any that are no longer used, please contact us and we will see Henry gets them - the least we can do for such a faithful collector and past officer.

From PAW PRINTS, the official newsletter of the International Society of Animal License Collectors (ISALC) dated Mar, 1985, Vol.9, #2, we extract the following:

Sixth Annual I.S.A.L.C. Convention, Saturday June 15th & Sunday 16th June (1/2 day), 6100 Richmond Highway, 1/2 mile south of Woodrow Wilson Bridge on Route 1, at the Holiday Inn Alexandria, Virginia.

Ronald Hamen, Public Affairs Officer, U. S. Postal Service has had this special cancellation design produced for the ANA Convention in Baltimore.

CATONSVILLE COIN CLUB'S ANNUAL SHOW
by Bryce F. Doxzon

Cloudy skies, light rain and cool temperatures reigned throughout March 24, 1985 as the Catonsville Coin Club held it's annual show but the weather adjectives did not describe the activity within the Towson Quality Inn. A large attendance kept eighteen dealers quite busy as customers evinced their interest mainly in type coins, modern proof sets and bullion material.

Visitors had the new attraction of exhibits to enjoy at this year's show. Exhibits Chairman Bryce Doxzon presided over the fourteen cases of competitive and non-competitive exhibits placed by eight exhibitors.

Millard Hajek received MSNA's Best of Show Award for his exhibit of "The Token-Coinage of Lundy Island".

Jack Pryor received the Master award for his exhibit of "Gun Money of James II".

Robert Vaughan received the Superior Award for his exhibit "United States Silver Commemoratives".

Bobbie Vaughan received the Excellence Award for her exhibit "The Origin of Numismatics - The Ancients".

Appreciation Awards went to Marvin Burris, John Hammond, Greg Ruby, Arlie Slabaugh and Robert Vaughan ( for an additional, non-competitive exhibit.

Auction catalogues and numismatic journals sold well; Catonsville Coin Club 20th anniversary tokens were given out to visitors and several door prizes were given out, including a 1985 Reagan inaugural medal. The raffle prize, the largest of the club's shows prizes to date, was won by William Fleck.

Footnote: As the show was in progress the Catonsville Library held a dedication and burial ceremony for a time capsule to be opened in 2034. Included in the time capsule are some Catonsville Coin Club 20th anniversary tokens and wooden nickels like those given out at the 1984 ANA Convention in Detroit.

The last A N A Convention held in Baltimore was held 23 thru 27 September 1916. As of one August 1916 ANA had a total of 482 members of whom 38 attended the Convention. The A N A having been formed October 7, 1891 thus celebrated their Silver Anniversary in Baltimore. One of the members, C. E. Walters of Philadelphia, brought with him to the convention a roll of obsolete $5. notes of the Merchants and Mechanics' Bank of Monroe, Michigan, which he distributed as souvenirs.

BALTIMORE COIN CLUB HOLDS ANNUAL BANQUET

Baltimore Coin Club held it's annual banquet on 21 March 1985 at the Overlea Hall.

Cory Lee Gilliland, guest Speaker at Baltimore Coin Club's banquet, displays a set of Baltimore Coin Club medals which were presented to her.

Cory Lee's topic of the evening - "The Stone Money of Yap" put a new understanding on that unusual form of "Currency".

ASSOCIATED COIN CLUBS SHOW, held the 10th of March 1985, seemed to suffer the slow down which has been typical of recent shows. Despite this all of the dealers attending seemed to have a decent show and the members of the Association seemed to enjoy themselves. Above, members of the Harford Coin Huskers, one of the four members of the association, attend the door during their shift. From left to right: Bill Swagler; Leo Dasch, Elmer Lewis, Barry Hedrick and Earl Leonhardt (back to camera). Below: Our prize winning exhibitors; Left to right: Jack Pryor - 1st Place: A Selection of Irish Gun Money of James II.

Robert Vaughan - Best of Show: U.S. Silver Commemorative Bobbie Vaughan - 2nd Place: The Origin of Numismatics - the Ancients.
 Marvin (Pete) Burris - 3rd Place: Select Medals of George Washington.

Call for Exhibits and Numismatic Theatre Presentations

Collectors who wish to exhibit material at the Baltimore convention are encouraged to request an application form from Exhibits Chairmen Phil and John Greenslet, Box 377, Reisterstown, MD 21136. Exhibit applications must be completed and returned to the exhibits chairmen by June 25, 1985.

Those who are planning a non-competitive exhibit are invited to share their expertise with fellow collectors by presenting a short talk in the Numismatic Theatre, which will be held in a specially designated area in the Baltimore Convention Center. The Numismatic Theatre will offer 20- to 30-minute talks and programs on a wide variety of numismatic subjects. Interested members are invited to inquire further about the Numismatic Theatre by writing to Willard R. Mumford, Education Chairman, 987 Sherwood Forest Road, Annapolis, MD 21401.

Call for Program Advertisers

Member dealers and other enthusiastic convention supporters are urged to advertise in the official ANA convention program. Full- and half-page advertising space is available in the program for $125 and $75 respectively. Advertisers are requested to submit new copy for ads and to send their insertion orders to Deborah Muehleisen, Advertising Manager, American Numismatic Association, P.O. Box 2366, Colorado Springs, CO 80901. To facilitate ease in handling, all insertion orders must be accompanied by full payment and should be plainly marked "Baltimore Program." Deadline for receipt of ads is July 15.

Call for Patrons

Every concerned ANA member is cordially invited to help support the Baltimore convention by becoming a convention patron. Patron support helps defray the general costs of the convention program and the many special events and tours planned for convention guests. Four categories of tax deductible patron support are available: Collector—$10 or more; Dealer—$10 or more; Club—$15 or more, and Benefactor—$25 or more. Of course, larger donations are encouraged and will be most appreciated. With your help, the Baltimore convention will be a memorable event for all. Your patron check, which should be made payable to the American Numismatic Association 94th Anniversary Convention, should be sent to William R. Ayres, Jr., Patrons Chairman, P.O. Box 88, Fork, MD 21051.

JACK PRYOR tells us: "Adopt your favorite disc jockey. One way to get publicity for the ANA Convention is to write to your T V or radio disc jockey. I wrote two letters to Bob Jones and Jim West of WBAL and sent them each, one of my James II fans for the 300th Anniversary of the Accession of James II to the Throne of England. The back of the fans noted the 94th Anniversary Convention of ANA & the 50th anniversary of the founding of the Baltimore Club. Jim and Bob discussed these events on WBAL on Feb 6, at 5:55 to 6:00 a.m. I wrote them a thank you note and enclosed a wooden dollar for each. On Feb 13th they read off both sides of it and promised to read other announcements as the convention draws near.

If everyone would drop a line to their favorite TV or Radio personality we should be able to get a lot of publicity.

BITS, BILLS, AND TOBACCO

A HISTORY OF MONEY IN MARYLAND

By WILL MUMFORD

The earliest currency system used in Maryland was that of the barter. The accounts of the early explorers of the Chesapeake Bay is really an account of adventurers seeking treasures. In the absence of gold they settled for beaver skins and Indian corn. Captain John Smith traded with the Indians on the first known voyage of a white man through the Chesapeake in 1608. Captain Henry Fleet found the Indians especially liked European cloths. In his journal, written in 1632, we find; "Indians delight in broad-cloth, coats, shirts and Scottish stockings." "The women desired bells and some kinds of beads." Fleet's seamen hoped to "sell away all their cloths for beaver." Often one of his crew would sell away too much of his clothes and sail home wrapped only in beaver skins. The seamen also traded shot, powder and guns to the Indians. In later accounts we find mention of axes, hoes, knives, combs, fish hooks, jewsharps and looking glasses as items used in trade.

Father Andrew White, a passenger on the Ark or the Dove, described Leonard Calvert's first purchase in the New World, "We bought from the King (Indian Chief) thirty miles of that land, delivering in exchange axes, hatchets, rakes and several yards of cloth." With this purchase Governor Calvert bought an Indian village and the land which they later settled and called St. Maries City. The value of real estate has gone up somewhat since those days!

In the early years of colonization there was little need for actual money. The barter system adequately satisfied the economic needs of the colonists but as society became more complex, and trade became a more dominant factor in the economy of the colonists, the barter system no longer satisfied their needs; yet throughout the history of Maryland we find evidence of barter. Advertisements in the Maryland Gazette illustrate the prevalence of bartering which existed in colonial Maryland.

In 1729, one Daniel Dulany advertised land to be let out (rented) with the rent payable in tobacco, corn, wheat or other produce. Patrick Creagh, in 1747, advertised his goods for sale for bills, tobacco, current money, good clean barley at three shillings threepence per bushel, wheat at four shillings, corn at two shillings three pence, flour or ship-bread. George Rock, an iron manufacturer, advertised bar iron ready money ore for wheat at the highest market price.

Private accounts also show many examples of barter. A typical account had the following credits; 1 pistole, 2 bushels of wheat, 108 pounds of beef and 2 fat hogs weighing 225 pounds.

The Colonial Legislature tried to regulate some bartered items. In 1706 it enacted a law that gave properly cured flax and hemp legal tender status for one fourth of any debt. In 1715 an act was passed making it legal for those who lacked money to pay their debts off in certain commodities if they were produced in Maryland: Beef & bacon at  $1\frac{1}{2}$  penny per pound, pork at 2 pence, dried beef at 3 pence, wheat and peas at 3 shillings per bushel, oats and barley at 2 shillings, Indian corn at 20 pence and beans at 2 shillings 6 pence; tobacco was rated at one penny per pound.

The barter system prevailed in colonial Maryland and it worked fairly well between planters or planters and local merchants but in dealings with foreign merchants or in paying taxes the system failed. A specialized form of barter became the chief money of colonial Maryland. Tobacco currency will be the subject of the next edition of "Bits, Bills and Tobacco."

BALTIMORE COIN CLUB GETS MOBILE LIBRARY

Thanks to Baldwin Dorsch who, through negotiations of Pete Burris, was able to obtain from a local supplier a four-shelf lateral file cabinet, we are able to make more use of the vast amount of knowledge contained in our library. A metal base (on wheels) provided by Bob Ruby enables us to roll it into the meeting room where members can view and, if they wish, borrow books for a 2 week period.

LOCAL SALESMAN IS COIN EXPERT

by Hugh Monaghan

NEWS-POST Baltimore, Tues, July 1, 1958

"Here's a food man who really knows "money". T.Gordon Roberts, sales Representative of Wallace U.Dutterer, food brokers was recently elected President of the Baltimore Coin Club, Inc., a member of the American Numismatic Assn."

BALTIMORE 1985

by Pete Burris

Today, after 35 years, Gordon is still active in club meetings and has had speaking engagements at the Baltimore Coin Club, Colonial Coin Club and Maryland Numismatics Club, as the "PAPER MAN". Roberts is a numismatic authority on currency having a vast knowledge concerning US State issued and "broken bank notes". His favorite being rare currency and considers Educational Notes the most beautiful.

A few years back Baltimore Coin Club bestowed on Gordon Honorary Life Membership #15.

an active roll in the recruitment of new members. We ask that the clubs and individual members get involved by asking numismatists they know to join our organization. As a sponsor for the 1985 ANA in Baltimore - this is the year to belong to our state organization.

ANA 1985: Norman Stack will be asked to show his collection of U. S. type material as a center piece for the displays at our ANA Show. The February issue of the Numismatist does carry information on the Baltimore ANA Show. This is the first recognition the ANA has given to the Baltimore Show in its publications.

CARL M. SHRADER

One of the greatest pleasures any person can enjoy is the fellowship with his or her peers. The peer of the realm for the Maryland Coin hobbyist is upon us. Welcome to the 13th Annual Convention and Coin Show. The Officers and Board join the three host clubs - Alexandria, Colonial, and Perry Hall - with Co-Chairmen Bob Ruby and Jesse Martin to extend greetings to all of those attending the Annual Convention. Elsewhere in this issue you will find information on the schedule, dealer list, and speakers, as well as additional pertinent information.

This "Club Year" will end with the close of the Annual Meeting and Show. It has been a time of challenge and yes, some frustration. But despite it all, the groundwork has been laid for the years ahead. New officers will emerge after the counting of ballots; your vote is important to the future of the organization. Did you mark and return the ballot with your choices? Keeping the organization vital and maintaining success comes down to people. Good people make good organizations and developing the people who serve as the officers maximize the chance for success.

This is my last column. I did not run for re-election so I must say good-bye to the membership. You have been supportive in Maryland State's major effort - Baltimore 85, American Numismatic Association's 94th Anniversary Convention. It will be over by the time you read this, but Baltimore and Maryland State Numismatic Association will be long remembered by those 10,000 or so collectors, numismatists, dealers, visitors, and so on, that came and enjoyed "our show."

Unfortunately I visited only twelve clubs, less than half across the State. And the big reason for the visits was to enlist help for the ANA. You came through in great numbers with interest and commitment. You made "a show for the collector" one that will be remembered, written about, talked about.

It would be unwise to continue as your President after draining so much effort for extracurricular activity. Now you can return to the Clubs and the state organization with new dedication. You know the people - the membership - are good people. You know and understand success - you've been there.

I've often repeated my favorite story about the climate for success - the Don Larsen approach. You remember the famed New York Yankee who in 1956 pitched the only perfect game, ever, in a World Series.

You might have only one perfect game in you, but we want you to pitch it here.

Thanks for caring.

Numismatic Association, Inc.

P.O. BOX 6266
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20015

The officers and members of the board take this opportunity to extend to the Maryland State Numismatic Association their sincere best wishes for a successful 1985 convention. The annual show sponsored by M S N A is one of the highlights of the numismatic shows in the Washington area and one that numismatists look forward to annually.

Your contributions to the hobby have been many and our appreciation is expressed for the accomplishments on behalf of numismatists everywhere.

The 33rd Annual Convention of the Middle Atlantic Numismatic Association will be held October 18 - 20, 1985 in New Carrollton. We would like to invite your membership to attend and take an active part in our annual event.

Numismatists interested in information and membership in M A N A may obtain applications from the address above. We invite you to join the "MANA Family" and take an active part in the hobby.

Numismatically yours,

Steven R. Taylor
President

The Executive Board of the Maryland State Numismatic Association was called to order by Carl Shrader, President, at 7:00 pm, 3 April 1985, at the Baltimore Hyatt Regency. In attendance were:

Carl Shrader	-	President	Bill Ayres	-	Harford CoinH
Bob Ruby	-	Vice President	Bill Lenz	-	Baltimore Co C
Dave McDonald	-	Secretary	Bobbie Vaughan	-	"
Bill Swagler	-	Treasurer	Hank Schab	-	Colonial CoiC
Tom Reichelderfer	-	Past Pre	Reds Dorsch	-	Baltimore CC
Will Mumford	-	Past President	Zippy Larson	-	"
Phil W. Greenslet	-	Past Pre	Philip Guntner	-	ANA Comm.
Greg Ruby	-	Maryland TAMS

The minutes of the 2/16/85 meeting were read & approved.

Carl Shrader announced the sad news that Max Ratner had passed away very recently. Max had been Co-chairman of Registration for the upcoming ANA Convention in Baltimore.

The Treasurer's report was read by Bill Swagler and approved. The audit of the treasury is complete & the current system used to maintain the books is working well. It was recommended that documentation of expenses be submitted. We now have the form to use for this purpose. The Board thanked Bill Swagler for his efforts in upgrading the method used to maintain our books.

National Coin Week: Phil Greenslet has exhibits in various public libraries. He has also sent proclamations to the organizations throughout the State.

The John B. Henry Collection: Bill Lenz updated the cataloguing efforts on the collection. Will Mumford has contributed a great deal of time in this effort as has Bill. There is much more work to be done to complete this important project.

Souvenir Sheet: Hank Schab passed around an example for feedback from the Board. Last year this project brought in $453 gross with expenses of $231.

1985 MSNA Convention: Bob Ruby summarized the following information. 1. We have three host clubs selected: Alexandria, Colonial and Perry Hall. 2. We have requested a cancellation booth from the Hyattsville Post Office. 3. We have dates for the next three conventions: Sept 6 - 8, 1985; Sep 5-7, 1986; and Sep 4-6, 1987. 4. Dealer's Night contributions will go to the Johns Hopkins Children's Cancer Fund.

Bill Swagler recommended that we inventory the equipment owned by MSNA so we know the location and quantity.

Hank Schab recommended we award a plaque for the best article appearing in the Maryland Numismatist.

Respectfully submitted: Dave McDonald, Secretary

'Dedicated to attaining knowledge and fulfillment in Numismatics'

The Board of Directors of MSNA met at the Sheraton Hotel, New Carrollton on Saturday, 13 July 1985, at 2:30 pm. In attendance were:

Carl Shrader - President
Bob Ruby - Vice President
Bill Swagler - Treasurer
Bill Lenz - Baltimore Coin Club
Bill Ayres-Harford Coin Huskers
Jesse Martin-Alexandria Coin Cl
Greg Ruby - Maryland TAMS

Steve Taylor - Kent Coin Club
George Waingold-Western Md Coin C
Burnett Anderson- Numismatic News

Carl, Bob and Bobbie Vaughan visited the Western Maryland Coin Club in early June and had the highest accolades for the reception they received.

Carl read a draft of a letter he has prepared, as President of MSNA, to go in the ANA program to welcome visitors to the Convention and a second one he prepared as General Chairman of the Convention.

Our Association ballot to ANA was presented and the Board voted as follows: For President - no vote. For Vice President - Steve Taylor. For the Board of Governors - Fivaz, Lenker and Horton.

Bill Swagler presented a current Treasurer's report and it was accepted as given.

Our crab pins (for ANA) are about 1/3 paid for.

Bob Ruby brought us up to date on our Convention. Ribbons for the show have arrived and included is a new one to be used for the Thursday night dealers. 1500 wooden nickels are on order. Trophies will be ordered shortly. Flyers have been distributed all over. The Educational Program is being handled by Colonial Coin Club. Steve Taylor is the only confirmed speaker to date. Nothing had been done on the breakfast so Bob made the arrangements today. He gave a guarantee of 50 attendees and it will cost us $4.50 + .17 svc chg + 5% tax. Our Saturday Night dinner for our guest speakers will be a party of 20 and will consist of prime rib at a cost of $15.95 + .17 + 5% each. Jesse Martin is going to furnish the wine and cheese for the Educational Program. We are not appearing in the Numismatist or Coin World - Earl is supposed to be getting us listed in the Gray Sheet. The clubs are to furnish an inventory of items they provide for sale at the front desk so we can keep better track of them. Bill Swagler will be on the premises throughout the show and Steve Taylor will have a room for Friday and Saturday nights. The matter of providing a table for a lady who does silk screen work was discussed but the matter was turned down. As of today we have 60 dealers; we need 90 to break even. We need to make a concerted effort to get more dealers. Carl and/or Bob to talk to Earl and Paul about the Bourse Chairmanship.

A meeting was held at the Hyatt in Baltimore on July 10 to discuss A N A in Baltimore. Everything is progressing well except for some problems with the tour groups. These problems are being caused by A N A headquarters. No need is seen to have Ruthann make another special trip - phones will take care of needs. Patrons have collected over $4500. and the Numismatic Theater is well coordinated. 400 to 500 cases of exhibits are scheduled. YN looks good and the Banquet is set up. The Registration crew is moving forward and the program has been completed. A N A Headquarters and Ed Rochette has set up a program to get happenings in Baltimore in Ed's Column. The July Numismatist contains pictures and bios of the local committee. Metro Wash and MANA used the ANA 85 Baltimore sheet in their bulletins. August 6 is the deadline for material to be used in the Coin World and Numismatic News ANA issues.

The date for 1987 had to be changed as the date originally given was the Labor Day Weekend Date. Carl has confirmation from the hotel for the dates: 1986 - 4 thru 7 Sept and 1987-10th thru 13th. Contract was signed and re-ordered.

While some input has been received there has not been a meeting of the committee to determine policy for future shows.

Some members presented their inventories of MSNA owned property in their possession. The delinquents were requested to furnish their lists in a more timely fashion.

The John R. Henry collection inventory goes forward but is a slow job.

The Maryland Token Book is still not ready; Dave Schenkman is just not ready to go to print. Disappointment was expressed by all that it would not be ready for 88's.

A real problem for the board was the absence of all members of the nominating committee as well as a report from them. As there will be no further meetings prior to the annual meeting and as the ballots must be in the hands of the membership almost immediately, the Board voted to take over the role of the Membership Committee. Jesse Martin nominattted a slate of officers, which was accepted by the Board; Bill Lenz will have the ballot reproduced, Greg Ruby types them, and Bill Ayres and Bill Swagler will get them on their way.

MANA's Numismatist of the Year Nomination was presented for action. It was the opinion of all present that this Nomination should go to Carl Shrader for the tremendous job he has done over the past year. VP Ruby was advised to prepare the ballot.

Greg Ruby requested he be reappointed to the Publicity Committee Chairmanship and was accepted.

Baltimore Coin Club requested we supply a Best of Show Award for their Fourth Annual Show, which will be held in the fall and were advised it would be furnished.

Respectfully Submitted

BILL FIVAZ

A collector since 1950, Bill is recognized as one of the leading mint error and variety experts in the country. In 1980, he co-authored a section on Mint Errors in the Red Book and updated this section annually. He has served as a consultant to A N A C S and has been a director of the Numismatic Literary Guild. Bill is a member of many national, regional and local numismatic organizations. He was awarded the ANA Medal of Merit in 1984 and Numismatic Ambassador Award in 1982. He has served as an ANA Summer Seminar instructor since 1980 and has taught the grading class at these seminars for several years. He was born in Fulton, New York and currently calls Dunwoody, Georgia Home. Bill was one of our guest speakers in 1983 and we are delighted to have him back with us. As we go to print we are not sure of his topic but we understand he has a new program on the Liberty Head.

We are going to hear from Bill, as well as Steve Taylor and John Greenslet at the Annual Convention, 7:30 pm, the evening of Saturday, 7 Sep. A short article on each of the other two appear on pages 11 & 12 and a schedule of events for the Convention on page 10. At the completion of their talks we will enjoy an informal gathering with these three and the officers and guests of MSNA; complete with wine, soda and cheese. Those who have attended these affairs in the past can attest to the fine time you will be treated to.

STEVE TAYLOR

Steve Taylor: a Name to be reckoned with. He sometimes waits for years to get revenge. M S N A members know him well. He used to be our Vice President and has been a member and staunch supporter for many years. Steve would probably have been M S N A president but he had too many irons in the fire and had to pull some of them out to preserve his sanity. The fact he is now the Vice Presidential nominee for ANA shows that we aren't the only ones who appreciate him. Who else would have to retire as a bank vice president in order to devote his time to the hobby. He holds membership in 33 U.S. and Canadian Numismatic Organizations (and probably holds offices in half of them) We know he is president of G S N A and MANA and is a board member of SPMC, GENA and VNA as well as being Chairman of the International Numismatic Fellowship of Rotarians. Steve has spoken at many programs to further numismatics and has been the recipient of many awards in recognition of his efforts. Steve's primary numismatic love is paper money and tonight he is going to present us with a program on Large Size U. S. Paper Money.

JOHN GREENSLET

John is one of our own; son of our Past President Phil Greenslet and definely a numismatist in his own right. John has specialized in the official coronation medals of Great Britain and produced some great exhibits based on them. He is an A N A certified exhibits judge. He began exhibiting in 1976 and has earned over fifty awards which include: 2 ANA Jr. Best-in-Show; 2 CNA Jr. Best-in-Show; 1984 MSNA Best-in-Show; the 1983 Ray Byrne Literary Award; the Florence Schook Outstanding Young Numismatist Award for 1983 and many many others. John is currently the co-exhibits chairman for the ANA '85 in Baltimore along with his father. Tonight he is going to tell us about: What else? British Coronation Medals.

In the April issue of "The Maryland Numismatist" you were informed that "Jackie" Vaughan was the new secretary of the Baltimore Coin Club. In reality "Jackie" is really Bobbie Vaughan, who is also our nominee for secretary for MSNA for the coming year.

BALTIMORE COIN CLUB, under the editorship of their Treasurer Greg Ruby, has for the past few months had a monthly publication which they call "The Coin Courier". It is an informative publication that goes far beyond the auction lists and future events that seem to make up most. Good work Greg. From the Courier we extract the following:

BCC's Honorary Life Member, Morgan Hays has been elected Honorary President for 1985-1986 in recognition of his many years of service to the Club.

BCC's fiftieth anniversary meeting was held on April 18. 52 members and guests attended and were presented with a slide show on "Baltimore 1935" given by Jacques Kelly. One of the earliest members of the club, Mr. John M. Cook of Annapolis, was present and he gave a short talk on the club and members of those meetings of so long ago.

Among the displays of the evening was a wooden bald eagle that Harold Jones had carved - a truly breathtaking exhibit.

One of the highlights of the year for members of B C C is their spring visit to the Hanover Numismatic Society. This year 11 members traveled north for an outstanding evening. The evening began with a covered dish supper that defies description. This was followed by a slide presentation by Mr. William Millar on paper money used in the U.S. prior to the Civil War with special emphasis on money from the local area. A spirited auction conducted by Mr. E. A. Rebert wound up the evening.

At the May 16th meeting, Will Mumford gave a talk on several forms of financial transfer used in the Colony of Maryland which included barter, tobacco and foreign monies.

At their June 20th meeting, Burnett Anderson, Washington Bureau Chief for Krause Publications told of happenings in Washington relative to the hobby and; on July 18th, Steve Taylor presented a slide program on Paper Money Errors.

At their June meeting the members of PRINCE GEORGE'S COUNTY COIN CLUB enjoyed a program on inflation money of the world from the Roman Empire to present day Argentina presented by Simcha Kuritski.

At the April meeting of the MONTGOMERY COUNTY COIN CLUB Frank Katen spoke on auctions he has conducted over the years (the one at the 6th annual WMPG Tri-Club show was his 60th). He also displayed several catalogues from some of his earlier auctions. MCCC reports the loss of their long time member, Frances Moorhouse recently. At the 9 May meeting Greg Ruby gave a talk on tokens and showed slides of some of the tokens from the Baltimore area.

Among the exhibits displayed at the June meeting of MCCC were a 1887 British token; an 1868 10 Escudo Spanish jeton and a Colonial coin found on a beach in Delaware by Edward Kingsley and some 1971 ANA Convention in D. C. memorabilia by Walt Miller. Past President Ed Michaels is recovering from by-pass heart surgery.

At the MCCC July meeting Jack Robinson, of McLaughlin & Robinson spoke on early U. S. copper coins. He told the methods for grading; what the numbers and abbreviations in their auction catalogues mean; the different categories of collecting such as date, varieties, mint marks, etc. and the books to acquire to find information.

ALEXANDRIA COIN CLUB learned quite late of the passing of their long time member Patman W. Byers in February. ACC, as do many of our other clubs, procured 1986 red books which they sold to their members for $3.00 each.

KENT COIN CLUB celebrated National Coin Week with thirteen display cases of material at the Dover Mall. Terry Bryan had a display of Delaware Bank notes. Lee Short displayed a type collection of current day coins and currency; Bob Patterson had a near complete type set of 19th Century U.S. Coins; Junior Member - David Patterson displayed an Eisenhower Type set and a set of odd shaped coins from around the world; Herb Simon displayed wooden money and holiday woods for a bit of variety.

On 4 May members of the Kent Coin Club took part in Olde Dover Day activities by setting up exhibits in the main hall of the Kent County Court House. Bob Patterson, Terry Bryan and Herb Simon displayed here also.

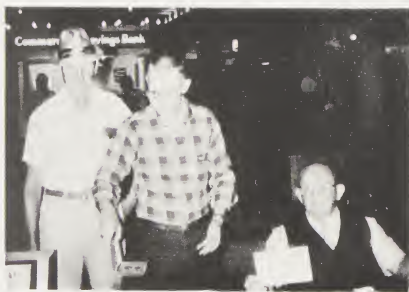

On 8 June, fourteen club families joined together to hold a picnic at Killen's Pond. Seems they had a little rain but who ever heard of that spoiling a coin club picnic?

KENT COIN CLUB is issuing their 1985 wooden nickel to continue the series begun in 1976. The current nickel depicts the Kent County Court House in Dover, Delaware and may be obtained by sending 25¢ and SASE to the club at the address shown on the back page. For a complete set of the ten years send them $3.25 and they will pay postage.

BELMAR COIN CLUB reports the absence of Harold Almonee due to major illness. Harold has always been an active participant in the hobby and well known to many of our earlier officers for his endeavors for the local club. May we offer our best wishes for his speedy recovery.

BELMAR COIN CLUB continued a tradition started several years ago by having an information table set up in the Harford Mall for the entire week of National Coin Week. Members of the Club were in attendance, every night, to answer questions from the public. Above: the table is shown being attended by Karl Keller and Paul Breining. Below: on another night, Frank Isenock on the left and John Massey, on the right, are joined by Phil Greenslet, MSNA Past President who spent a great time working with National Coin Week throughout the State.

FROM THE PRESIDENT:

Being that this is my first president's message, I would like to express my thanks to the membership for their vote of confidence.

During the past six months, I have visited with approximately eleven different clubs thru out the state and including one club in both PA and Va. During the next year, I plan to continue to visit some of the other clubs, as my work schedule permits.

One of my goals for this coming year is to get an earlier start on the 1986 Convention and the Fall Seminar. For the convention, the ball has already been put into motion.

Another project, that EVERY MEMBER can assist on, is the recruiting of some new members. I would like to see one new member recruited by each current member. Hopefully, by the next convention, I would like to announce that MSNA has exceeded two hundred members. That would be an increase of about 25 to 30 percent for the year.

Speaking of new members, I would like to welcome the South Glen Burnie Coin Club and the sixteen other new members to our ranks. Besides the state of Maryland, some of these new members reside as far away as Colorado, New York, Wisconsin, Virginia and Georgia.

Congratulations to all of the exhibitors who entered an exhibit at both the ANA and MSNA Conventions. There were some excellent exhibits to be viewed by all who attended.

Don't forget the Fall Seminar, this year it is being held in conjunction with the Associated Club Show on Sunday, October 27th, at 2:00 PM in the Victory Villa Community Center, Middle River, Maryland. Will Mumford is currently working on obtaining our speakers. Some light refreshments will follow at the end of our seminar. Remember that the Club with the most members present will receive a check for $25.00.

POTPOURRI OF NUMISMATIC LORE

One look at Joe's trophies, as shown in the picture to the right, leaves no doubt that Joe is, as Will Mumford has called him, A Dean of Washington, D.C. Area Numismatists. Everyone of the ribbons, badges and pins he is wearing represent a job accomplished or an honor received or earned. Joe has been extremely active in shows and club meetings throughout the area for more years than Mae will let us tell about. If anyone can tell a lot of stories about numismatics in the D.C. area, it's Joe and this afternoon that's exactly what he's going to do.

NUMERICAL GRADING - SHORTHAND NOT SCIENCE

A professional numismatist, Julian is better known among the dealer set than the average collector. He is active in the legislative and regulatory areas of the hobby. He is a consultant to the American Numismatic Association Certification Service and is a member of the Professional Numismatists Guild. He helped organize the National Association of Numismatic Professionals and its successor the Industry Council for Tangible Assets. Julian has some interesting ideas on grading and is going to share them with us this afternoon.

THE 1985 MSNA CONVENTION REPORT

BOB RUBY and JESSE MARTIN
CO-CHAIRMAN

As you all know by now, the 13th Annual MSNA Convention was held at the Sheraton Hotel, New Carrollton, Maryland on September 6 to 8, 1985, one of the HOTTEST weekends on record. As a result, we ended up with 95 dealers and 16 exhibitors who displayed 52 cases of super exhibits. Unfortunately the show was only attend by approximately 700 visitors and many of the dealers left on Saturday afternoon.

For those who stayed, they enjoyed a meeting by the Maryland Token and Medal Society, along with the Annual meeting of MSNA. Approximately 40 persons attended the Saturday evening Educational Forum and heard excellent programs presented by ANA Vice President Stephen Taylor, John Greenslet and one of the new ANA Governors, Bill Fivaz.

Exhibits were also great. On another page, I will list the exhibitors and their trophies won. Once again congratulations to all of the exhibitors. For the first time in three years, we had a tie vote for the People's Choice Award, duplicate awards were given.

Congratulations are also extended to our Immediate Past President, Carl Shrader, for being named as MSNA's NUMISMATIST OF THE YEAR. Carl, congratulations.

Not to be left out, we must also extend congratulations to Will Mumford. Will was presented the Henry A. Granofosky award for the best article published in the MARYLAND NUMISMATIST.

Respectfully submitted,

Bob Ruby,
Co-Chairman

Baltimore 85

AMERICAN NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION
94TH ANNIVERSARY CONVENTION • AUGUST 20-25, 1985

*There WAS more to Baltimore
than ever before*

If you don't believe it, ask:

Carl M. Shrader, General Chairman

THE ANA 94th ANNIVERSARY CONVENTION CAME TO BALTIMORE IN 1985 during the period of 20 thru 25 August and numismatics in the area will never again be the same. The ultra modern Baltimore Convention Center supplied a choice setting against the backdrop of the Baltimore Harbor. Hotels were ideally located for the event and skywalks connected many of the areas in the immediate vicinity. The wide range of attractions in the area which included Harbor Place; the Constellation; The Power Plant; The National Aquarium; The World Trade Center; The Science Center and the paddle boats gave those who needed a break a wide range of entertainments.

14,518 Numismatists registered for the Convention and were then treated to a wide range of numismatic interests. Hundreds of bourse dealers provided virtually anything in the line a collector could desire and afford. Most of the major dealers in the country were represented as were a number of auction houses. The major numismatic publications were all present as were such government agencies as the BEP, the Mint and the Post Office. The BEP had a souvenir card for sale for $3. which illustrated the back of the $500 gold certificate and for $15 you could purchase the Statue of Liberty Card. This card is made on the spider press, which was on hand and daily demonstrations of its operation were made. The Post Office had a special cancellation for the show which featured the mainmast, rigged, with the Baltimore Harbor in the Background. For several days of the convention, Director of BEP, Robert Leuver and Director of the Mint, Donna Pope, were available to sign autographs. The Bermuda Monetary Authority attended and issued a special souvenir sheet of 2500 serially numbered pieces. They also sponsored a post convention tour to Bermuda. Also in attendance were the French Mint, the Royal Canadian Mint, British Royal Mint, Singapore Mint and the China Mint. The China Mint brought a special souvenir; a one oz .999 silver medal with an issuance of 500 that depicted the Great Wall of China. The English words "The Great Wall of China" were printed backward so you had to use a mirror to read them. This issue ran out early & by the end of the show dealers were trading them for $60 to $80.

Approximately 20 major numismatic organizations had booths on the midway to provide information on their own special area of interest. Those booths were manned regularly by members who passed on information to those interested.

The Little Theater, Chaired by Will Mumford, provided a constant flow of numismatic information to those who were interested in attending. Twenty Six speakers provided a wealth of data on a wide range of subjects. The Educational Forum for the year featured Cory Lee Gilliland who spoke on the topic "The Smithsonian Donors and Our Collection" and Q. David Bowers on "The Baltimore Garretts - the Family and the Collection". The 150 attendees then enjoyed an intermission with punch and cookies after which they heard from some of the A N A Governors and Officers who gave their views on the future of ANA.

Other items of interest on the bourse floor included ANACS, the Authors table where 21 well known numismatists spent time on a regular basis autographing for the hobbyists and on area where one might "Meet a member of the board of governors". A VCR was set up which continually played tapes on numismatics for those who were interested.

Salt Lake City, Utah, (Winter 1986) and Milwaukee, WI (Summer 1986 - A N A 95th Anniversary Convention) were very much in evidence. An embroidered bee (I want to "bee" in Salt Lake City) was attached to your badge as were "M" from Milwaukee. Milwaukee's theme for 1986 will be "Coin Collecting - Family Fun for Everyone". Milwaukee also has available a beer stein tie tack which they are selling - the proceeds to go to the Leshner Museum. The steins are a very compatible item with our Maryland Crabs for 1985.

The Y N activities kept a sizeable group of young numismatists busy for the better part of the week. Our tours to Philadelphia, the BEP, Annapolis, the Spouses Luncheon and the Crab Feast at Gunnings were all an outstanding success.

The exhibits area was one of the largest every provided by an ANA Convention. Close to 500 cases were needed to display all of the items provided. The 1804 Dollar and Black Diamond are a couple of displays not often seen. Approximately 45 judges were used in the area.

The Baltimore Coin Club Banquet, held at the Convention Center, to celebrate their 50 years of existence was a most enjoyable affair. Those members who did not attend missed a great evening.

One theme we continuously heard, throughout the show, was "How Great It Is". Our heads swelled up so bad we couldn't get thru the doors. "Best ANA Show Ever" was heard on every side, and it really was. We had it all: Tremendous assistance from the Convention Center, The Convention Bureau, an outstanding site; both for the show and local attractions, A great local committee and: how can we describe our chairman - CARL SHRADER.

Jack Pryor, who made the arrangements for the ribbon cutting for the ANA Convention, was the surprised recipient of a souvenir cup from Frank X. Gallagher. Also facing camera are Ruthann Brettell, Q. David Bowers and Bill Lenz.

Readily recognizable in the bottom picture are Bob Ruby, Carl Shrader, Florence Schook, Paul Finck, Q. David Bowers and Bill Lenz. Even though Jack Pryor is turned away we all know him also.

The immense size of the Convention Center is only partially shown in this picture in which Adna Wilde stands. This is the area beyond the main entrance and does not include one complete wing which is just as large as this one. In this picture the A N A booth is behind the white curtain to the right.

MEMBER REGISTRATION

One of the busiest areas throughout the ANA Convention was the Registration Area. It takes a lot of manhours to register 14,518 people. In addition to the 10 to 20 volunteers and paid typists on hand at all times were to be found two or more of the leaders: Bill Swagler, Treasurer, Bill Ayres, Patron Listing Chairman: Bobbie Vaughan, Registration Chairman, "Bert" Bressett from A N A and Pat Yates from A N A. In addition Bill Lenz and Carl Shrader joined us for this picture.

A show within a show: the exhibits area of the ANA Convention presided over by Phil and John Greenslet.

Black Diamond, model for our Buffalo 5¢. Butchered and sold for meat over a half century ago and yet his mounted head still exists in a Maryland Home. When you visited the exhibit area you could not miss this one. A same of how much work Phil & John put into collecting some interesting exhibits for our view.

BITS, F LLS and TOBACCO
A History of Money in Maryland
by: Will Mumford

A specialized form of barter became the chief money of colonial Maryland. Tobacco had already proven its worth and had become the chief form of money used in Virginia. Maryland settlers borrowed many customs and practices from their Virginia cousins and tobacco proved no exception. The sweet smelling sotweed soon became the official currency of Maryland. All taxes, fines, debts, legal fees, rents and salaries of the clergy and government officials were regularly paid in tobacco.

The historian, George Alsop, writing in 1660 stated, "Tobacco is the current Coyn of Maryland and will sooner purchase commodities from the Merchant than money."

A later historian, John Oldmixon wrote in 1710 that, "Tobacco is the Marylanders' Meat, Drink, Cloathing and Money."

In the tobacco producing counties over 90% of all transactions between planters and merchants were in tobacco. An occasional "hog", cow or grains appear as payment but tobacco ruled as king currency for over 100 years.

Most dealings with tobacco were done on open accounts and were paid in bulk by the transfer of tobacco accounts. Maryland colonists didn't have to travel with bundles of tobacco as pocketmoney. The tobacco usually remained in the planter's barn in the name of the merchant who purchased the tobacco from the planter. If the merchant transferred his tobacco to a third party the name was changed on the hogshead which stayed in the planter's barn until it was finally shipped (A hogshead is a large barrel used to package tobacco. An early planter used as his stamp the head of a hog which he proudly displayed on his tobacco barrels; hence the term "hogshead".)

Another means devised to facilitate the transfer of the bulky tobacco money was the tobacco note. In 1747, public warehouses were established to which all tobacco had to be sent before it was shipped. One of these tobacco warehouses still stands near the market place in Annapolis. When a planter delivered his tobacco to the warehouse he was given a "tobacco note" which stated the amount, condition and quality of the tobacco received. The tobacco note then circulated freely from hand-to-hand as modern paper money. These notes became the most common form of money used in Maryland in the mid eighteenth century.

Although tobacco became the chief money of the Maryland colonist, there were many problems with its use.

Bits, Bills and Tobacco - Continued

The supply was not well distributed among the people. Many colonists started growing tobacco in their backyards for a little extra cash...they were in effect growing their own money trees! But the bulk of the tobacco wealth remained in the hands of the large planters, merchants and the "factors" who made purchases for the British merchants who they represented. Those without property or special skills had no way of acquiring tobacco wealth.

Tobacco was also a seasonal product and its value fluctuated within each year and from year to year depending on the growing season. In 1660 tobacco brought 14 shillings per 100 pounds, but in 1666 it only brought 7 shillings 6 pence per 100 pounds.

Tobacco was also perishable and had great bulk. It also varied considerably in quality. A common practice for planters was to bury their poorest grade of tobacco deep in the hoghead and pack the best quality near the ends where it would show when inspected. Tobacco proved also to be greedy as it depleted the soil of lime and potash within a 6 year planting cycle. Planters would abandon wornout fields and clear fresh acres.

The use of tobacco as currency became the greatest political issue of the early 1700's. From 1720 to 1747 almost every legislature took into consideration some proposed tobacco act. Attempts to regulate the tobacco currency were greatly opposed by those who were paid in tobacco. Some of the earliest lobbyists in America were made up of the clergy whose pressure in 1730 brought the proprietor's veto of an Act to limit the clergies salary when tobacco prices went above certain levels.

While other colonies were issuing paper currency, Maryland's proprietary court vetoed any attempt for the colony to issue its own paper money. Maryland was forced to deal with the unwieldy tobacco currency which posed serious difficulties in managing the colonial economy. In 1729, Governor Benedict Leonard Calvert wrote a twenty-nine page letter to his brother the Lord Proprietor in England. In his letter Calvert outlined the problems of the colony in minute detail. The problems, as it seems, all dealt with the economy.

The colonists were not paying their quitrents of two shillings per hoghead which amounted to over 6,000 pounds sterling per year. There were problems in collecting the fees of the proprietary officers. After an analysis of the situation with proposed solutions, he wrote of the limitations of tobacco.

"Tobacco, as our Staple, is our all, and indeed leaves no room for anything Else: It requires the Attendance of all our hands, and exacts their utmost labour, the whole year round."

And when shipped to England it was exchanged for merchandise rather than money.

"Money, or somewhat to answer its Current Effects in trade is certainly much wanted here; we may Barter one Another our Staple tobacco; but to carry on and Inlarge our trade Abroad & to Invite Artificiers, Ship wrights, etc. to Settle amongst us, another Species of Currency in payments, seems very desirable".

Governor Calvert made it quite clear to the Proprietor that he favored the paper currency demanded by the local legislators. The stage was then set for Marylanders to enter into the paper currency experiment which was experiencing only limited success and often drastic failure by other colonies.

Yet the use of tobacco as money continued, even after paper currency was issued. Tobacco currency reached its peak in the 1750's but by 1765 the system was in rapid decline. As the colony expanded, new sources of trade surfaced which were based on a cash system. Soil was being depleted and planters were converting more of their crops to corn and other grains. The western and northern regions of Maryland were not suited for the growing of tobacco and other crops prevailed. Only the central part of the Eastern Shore and the tidewater regions of the Western Shore continued to grow tobacco in amounts sufficient to sustain the century old tradition of conducting their business in terms of the old sotweed.

Tobacco never did completely die as a significant force in the Maryland economy. Even today many farmers still rely on the sweet smelling sotweed, still packed in hogsheads, to provide for their economic needs.

Tobacco, the first cash crop of the South was usually transported by boat over the tidewater rivers to the nearest ship landing. When necessary the hogsheads were rolled overland. From William Tatham, An Historical and Practical Essay on the Culture and Commerce of Tobacco (London 1800);

BALTIMORE COIN CLUB members had 15 competitive exhibits entered at the ANA Convention and proceeded to collect 10 awards.

In Medals; Millard W. Hajek received First Place; A. Vernon Taylor Second Place; Bryce Doxzon Third and Jim Keller took an Appreciation Award.

Tokens: And Millard won another First Place Award.

Bobbie Vaughan placed Third in The Ancients.

Robert Vaughan received Second Place in the US Gold Category. Second in the Latin American Class was won by Arlie Slabaugh. In the Specialized Category Pete Burris and Jack Pryor both received Appreciation Awards.

In the Local Interest Category A. Vernon Taylor Received Third Place; Greg Ruby Second and Arlie Slabaugh an Appreciation Award.

Baltimore Coin Club had a table at the ANA Convention which was manned throughout the show by club officers and members.

Among those giving presentations at the Numismatic Theater were BBC members Millard Hajek, Jack Pryor, Russ Sears, Denwood Kelly and Oscar Dodson.

KENT COIN CLUB reports that their Junior Member Russ Wolfe gave a report at their July meeting and thus earned his 3 Indian cents. Junior Dave Patterson received the right to collect a Western Samoan Dollar at their August meeting; all he has to do to take it home is for him to give a report in September. At their August meeting also, Steve Taylor won a $5.00 attendance prize. Steve claims this is the first time he has received this since the club was founded in 1971: Tough - now he can't complain about not winning it. Kent also has a new wooden nickle available - see separate item.

PRINCE GEORGE'S COUNTY COIN CLUB reports that Mr. Sedgwick L. Moss presented them with a most enjoyable talk on "Bygone Banknotes" at the August meeting.

P G C C C has joined the ANA 1891 Club as member #279.

Also at their August meeting they enjoyed displays given by Dr. James Lore; Bob Colcock; Eugene Sokowski; Joe Clarke and Sandy Emme.

MONTGOMERY COUNTY COIN CLUB, under the guidance of program chairman Walt Miller, enjoyed a question and answer session taken from the Red Book at their July meeting. Not only was it fun but those with the correct answers received numismatic rewards; one dollar silver certificates.

MCCCC has also voted to join the A N A 1891 Club. Four members presented displays at the July meeting: Herb Hall; Simcha Kuritsky; Irv Eisen and Kermit Smyth. At their August meeting Laurese Katzen narrated a slide program on Odd and Curious Items that have been and some which still are being used for money.

MARYLAND TAMS also reported on their members who received awards at the ANA Convention. Greg Ruby placed Second in U.S Coins.

In Medals: Millard Hajek received First Place; A. Vernon Taylor received Second and Bryce Doxzon Third.

Tokens: Millard Hajek placed First.

Local Interest Numismatic Material: George Cuhaj placed First; Greg Ruby - Second and A. Vernon Taylor - Third.

In Addition, Vernon received the "Mishler Exonumia Catalog Award" for his book on the Bonnie Blink Tokens.

CARROLL COUNTY COIN CLUB and COLONIAL COIN CLUB both wish to announce, with regrets that they are forced to cancel their shows for 1985.

HARFORD COIN HUSKERS, PERRY HALL COIN CLUB, HAMILTON COIN CLUB AND MIDDLE RIVER COIN CLUB: The Associated Coin Clubs announce that not only will their show be held, as scheduled, but they are now happy to announce that MSNA has again agreed to hold the Fall Seminar in conjunction with the show.

HARFORD COIN HUSKERS held their annual picnic and crab feast in August. This highly popular annual affair again attracted a large number of members and guest. In addition to crabs, a roast of beef was prepared over charcoal, fresh corn was boiled, watermelon sliced and for those on the athletic side enjoyed raw egg toss; water balloon toss; badminton; Horse shoes and darts.

KENT COIN CLUB ISSUES NICKLE

In conjunction with their 14th annual show KCC issued a wooden nickle which depicts the Kent County Court House in Dover, Delaware, which was erected in 1882 on the site of King George's Tavern. They may be obtained by sending a SASE and 25¢ to the club at P.O. Box 894, Dover, Delaware 19903-0894. The club also has nickels from 1976 thru the present time available for $3.25 a set (this includes postage and handling).

The Harford Coin Huskers annual picnic and crab feast is a date looked forward to with anticipation from year to year. Above, relaxing between games and eating, are Leo Dasch, Earl Leonhardt and Elmer Lewis.

Below right: Notice the form as Leo Dasch pitches a horseshoe for a ringer (or did it ever reach the peg?)

Ed Rochette visited the Baltimore Coin Club as guest speaker. His topic of the evening centered on the elephant tokens, believed to have been struck in England for use in the colonies. Above: Bob Ruby presents Ed with a set of Baltimore Coin Club's medals for his appearance and Below: Jack Pryor shows Ed one of the medals which he owns as Reds Dorsch and Bob Ruby look on.

ANA 94th Anniversary Convention - Baltimore - 1985 - pg 3

We would be remiss if we did not name those members who came forward to work to make this a successful show:

Carl Shrader - Chairman

Bill Lenz & Bob Ruby-Co-Chairmen: Bill Ayres - Patrons Listings; Pete Burris - Properties; Reds Dorsch - Banquet & Entertainment; Sandy Emme - YN's; Paulette Finck - Spouses Entertainment; Milt Ford- Photography; Phil & John Greenslet - Exhibits; Phil Guntner - Program; Carleton Hafer - pages; Julian Leidman - Bourse; Will Mumford - Numismatic Theatre; Tom Reichelderfer & Mel Widerman-Publicity; Carol & Jack Pryor - Tours; Hank Schab - Medals & Ribbons; Bill Swagler - Finance; Bobbie Vaughan - Pre-Registration & Registration.

(I wish to offer my deep appreciation to John & Nancy Wilson, from Milwaukee, WI, who took the time and trouble to prepare a report on our ANA show from which I made many extractions in preparing our local report. Their report was a book unto itself and our little publication not big enough to do it justice. John & Nancy thank you and I reckon some of us will see you in Milwaukee)
